No. 2701 R-10/5

Dated 28th August 1953

Sub: Compassionate gratuity - application of Srimathi Nagerathamma, widow of late Sri L.K. Ramamurthy, Market Officer, Hanur-forwarded.

B I forward herewith an application dated 13-4-53 from Srimathi Nagerathamma, widow of late Sri L.K. Ramamurthy, Market Officer, Sericultural Section, Hanur for the grant of a Compassionate gratuity.

C Sri L.K. Ramamurthy entered service on 2-3-1927. He went on leave from 22-12-52 due to ~~ill~~ ill health and expired on 23-3-53.
He has rendered a total service of 26 years and 21 days and his work during the period was generally satisfactory. He was drawing a pay of Rs.96/- plus special pay of Rs.36/- for service in unhealthy locality plus D.A. of Rs.31/- p.m. at the time of his going on leave on 22-12-52.

D From the report of the Revenue authorities it will be seen that the deceased has left behind him his widow aged 47 years and 3 daughters and one son. Two of the daughters are married and living with their husbands, and the third aged 15 is yet to be married. The son aged 21 years is studying in the college for B.Sc. course. As regards the financial condition of the family it is reported that it has ~~not~~ no liabilities to discharge and that the only assets are two acres of wet land (saline soil) valued at Rs.900/- E They have no house of their own to live in and no one to look for support. The deceased has left a sum of Rs.2245/- in his General Provident Fund account.

The Sericultural Expert, Kollegal has recommended the grant of the maximum amount of Compassionate gratuity admissible under the rules in consideration of the long service of the deceased, which comes to Rs.1,956, i.e. (96+36+31) or 163 x 12.

M As the family has no liabilities to discharge and as only a son and a daughter are to be brought up, I suggest that an amount of Rs.1,200/- may be sanctioned as Compassionate gratuity to the widow of the deceased.

The records of enquiry by the Revenue authorities, the personal file and the Service Book of the deceased and the descriptive roll of the applicant in duplicate are enclosed.

K. Kannakalan,
